Hawk on the wing, swift, and proud, strong and fearless
You among birds dares the wrath of the storm,
Hawk on the wing, you alone brave the lightning
Wild one distaining, safe and warm

Hawk on the wing, you the keen-eyed and clever
Nothing escapes you, you see all below
Hawk on the wing, bold, defiant defender
Ever relentless in seeking your foe

Vigilant, valiant, and fearless to be
Hawk on the wing, with the sun on your feathers,
Be our example that we may live free
