Recall

Mercedes Laxkey / Leslie Fish

am D am
Tell me, where have you gone?
E am
I can’t find you at all.
am D am
Are you lost in the dark, are you gone, passed, recalled?
G F E
Are you hiding somewhere, frightened lost and alone?
am D E am
Are you home now and safe, won’t you come back, Queen’s own?

Tell me, where have you gone?
Little girl, once so strong?
Now your sweet voice is silent, vanished, quiet your bright song
You have left us alone, for your music we yearn
Can’t you hear us and heed us, will you ever return?

Tell me, where have you gone?
I have looked till I’m blind
But of my little friend, not a trace can I find
There is nothing around me but coldness and black
And for our friendship’s sake, dear heart, won’t you come back?

Tell me, where have you gone
I’m alone, I’m afraid
There’s no power to help me, for all that I’ve prayed
There’s no light in my soul, there’s no peace, there’s no rest
And I need you, I know now, far more than I guessed

Tell me, where have you gone?
Will you heal me and heed?
For if you won’t return then I’ll follow your lead
All alone in despair I’ll take down the last wall
||: Gods I need you, I love you, oh my love, hear my call! :||
